the so called extra calvinisticum the doctrine that the incarnate son of god continued to exist beyond the flesh was not invented by john calvin or reformed theologians if this is true as is almost universally acknowledged today then why do scholars continue to fixate almost exclusively on calvin when they discuss this doctrine the answer to the why of this scholarly trend however is not as important as correcting the trend this volume expands our vision of the historical functions and christological significance of this doctrine by expounding its uses in cyril of alexandria thomas aquinas zacharias ursinus and in theologians from the reformation to the present despite its relative obscurity the doctrine that came to be known as the calvinist extra is a possession of the church catholic and a feature of christology that ought to be carefully appropriated in contemporary reflection on the incarnation this incendiary book constitutes a formal theological disproof of the central tenets of christianity the trinity and the incarnation christianity is a staggeringly false religion the reason most christians continue to believe is that a they have been relentlessly brainwashed and b they don t actually know anything about christianity the absurdities of christianity can be understood only by examining the many heresies that sprang up in the early centuries of the church challenging every aspect of orthodox christian thinking these heresies have boxed in christianity so much that all that s left is a statement of what christianity isn t it s only possible to be a trinitarian christian by stating the empty formula three persons in one god without ever daring to specify what person means similarly christians mouth the hollow formula of the incarnation two natures human and divine in one person without having any idea of what nature means
